On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or above votes need not cast all his votes for, against or abstention in the same way.

Where material issues affecting the interests of minority shareholders are considered at the Shareholders' general meeting, the votes of minority shareholders shall be counted separately. The separate votes counting results shall be disclosed publicly in a timely manner.

The shares of the Company held by the Company shall have no voting right, and shall not be included in the total number of shares with voting rights of shareholders present at the Shareholders' general meeting.

If a shareholder purchases shares with voting rights of the Company in violation of the provisions of Article 63(1) and (2) of the Securities Law, the voting rights of such shares in excess of the prescribed proportion shall not be exercised and shall not be counted towards the total number of shares with voting rights present at the Shareholders' general meeting for thirty-six months after the purchase.

Article 81 When the shareholders' general meeting proceeds to deliberate such related-party transaction, the interested shareholder shall take the initiative to declare the nature of his/her interest and abstain from voting; and if he/she fails to do so, other shareholders may request him/her to declare the same and abstain from voting. The convener shall investigate whether such shareholder is an interested shareholder and whether such shareholder should abstain from voting according to the relevant regulations.

An interested shareholder who should abstain from voting may participate in the discussion about such transaction, and provide explanations about the reason for entry into such transaction, particulars of such transaction, and fairness and legality of such transaction at the shareholders' general meeting.

After the end of the shareholders' general meeting, if any shareholder discovers that any interested shareholder participated in the vote on any related-party transaction, or has an objection over the application of the abstention principle, such shareholder shall have the right to bring an action in respect of the relevant resolutions at the people's court in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.

Article 82 Unless the Company faces a crisis or falls into other special situations, without the approval of a special resolution by the shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the Directors, general manager and other senior management of the Company, pursuant to which, the Company will delegate the management of all or any important business of the Company to such person.

(ii) the Supervisory Committee and the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding three percent (3%) or more of the shares in the Company shall have the right to nominate shareholders' representatives as Supervisor candidates, and after soliciting the opinions of such nominees and examining their qualifications, the Supervisory Committee shall submit a proposal to the shareholders' general meeting; and

(iii) The method and procedure for nominating independent Directors shall comply with relevant laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the relevant authorities of the state.

When electing Directors and Supervisors at a shareholders' general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be adopted pursuant to these Articles or the relevant resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting. That is, when the shareholders' general meeting elects directors or supervisors, each share shall be entitled to such number of votes that is equal to the number of Directors or Supervisors to be elected, and a shareholder may allocate all of his/her votes to a single candidate. When a single shareholder together with its parties acting in concert controls 30% interests of the Company or more, or when two or more directors or supervisors are to be elected, the cumulative voting shall be adopted.

Specific process of cumulative voting:

(i) the election of and votes on the Independent Directors, Non-independent Directors and Supervisors shall be held separately.

(ii) in the election of the Independent Directors, each shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes that is equal to the number of shares held by him/her multiplied by the number of available positions of the Independent Directors; such votes may only be allocated to the Independent Director candidates, and the candidates with the most votes will be elected;

(iii) in the election of the Non-independent Directors and the Supervisors, each shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes that is equal to the number of shares held by him/her multiplied by the number of available positions of the Non-independent Directors and the Supervisors; such votes may only be allocated to the Non-independent Director and the Supervisor candidates, and the candidates with the most votes will be elected.

(iv) if the number of candidates exceeds the number specified herein, the number of the Independent Directors, Non-independent Directors and Supervisors elected by each shareholder shall not exceed the respective number of the Independent Directors, Non-independent Directors and Supervisors specified herein, and the total number of votes cast by him/her shall not exceed the number of votes that he/she is entitled to. Otherwise, the votes cast by such shareholder shall be invalid.

(v) the scrutineer(s) and teller(s) at the shareholders' general meeting shall carefully examine the compliance with the foregoing provisions, to ensure the fairness and validity of the cumulative voting.

Article 84 Except for the cumulative voting system, votes on proposals shall be taken one by one at a shareholders' general meeting, and if there are different proposals regarding the same matter, vote on such proposals shall be taken in order of time of submission thereof. Unless the shareholders' general meeting is discontinued or fails to adopt any resolution due to any force majeure or other special reasons, the shareholders' general meeting shall not put on hold or refrain from voting on any proposal.

Article 85 No proposal deliberated at a shareholders' general meeting shall be amended; otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be deemed a new proposal, which shall not be voted on at the same meeting.

Article 86 The same vote may only be cast once on site, online or by other means, provided that if the same vote is cast more than once, only the first vote will be deemed valid.

Article 87 Votes at a shareholders' general meeting shall be cast in a registered manner.

Article 88 Before voting on any proposal, a shareholders' general meeting shall choose two shareholders' representatives to participate in the votes counting or scrutinizing, provided that no such shareholders' representative shall be a shareholder who is interested in the subject matter of such proposal or his/her proxy.

The counsels (if applicable), shareholders' representatives and supervisors' representatives shall jointly count and scrutinize the votes cast on such proposal. The voting results shall be declared at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The shareholders, who cast votes online or by other means, whether in person or by proxy, shall have the right to check their voting results through the relevant voting system.

Article 89 The on-site voting at a shareholders' general meeting shall not end before voting online or by other means. The chairperson shall declare the result of voting on each proposal, and whether such proposal has been adopted accordingly.

Before the formal declaration of the result of any voting, the Company, teller(s), scrutineer(s), substantial shareholders, network service providers and other persons involved in voting on site, online or by other means shall have the obligation to keep confidential the information related to the voting.

Article 90 A shareholder attending any shareholders' general meeting shall vote for or against or abstain from voting on each proposal submitted to the meeting for voting, except the Securities Depository and Clearing Institution, as a nominee holder under the Mainland-Hong Kong Stock Connect Scheme, may make declarations according to the intentions of the actual holders.

In the event of any vote that is uncompleted, erroneously completed or illegible, or fails to be cast, the shareholder casting or failing to cast the same shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting right, and the voting results of the shares held by him/her shall counted as “abstaining from voting”.

In case of different proposals for the same matter, the shareholder or his/her proxy shall not vote in favor of the different proposals for the same matter simultaneously at a shareholders’ general meeting.

Article 91 If the chairperson of a shareholders’ general meeting has any doubt about the result of voting on any resolution, the chairperson may request the votes cast to be counted. If the chairperson does not request the votes to be counted, any shareholder attending the meeting in person or by proxy shall have the right to request the votes to be counted immediately after the result of voting is declared if such shareholder objects to the result of voting, in which case, the chairperson shall immediately have the votes counted.

Article 92 Resolutions passed at a shareholders’ general meeting shall be announced promptly. The announcement shall set out the number of the shareholders and their proxies present at the general meeting(s), the total number of voting shares represented by them and the proportion of the total number of the Company’s voting shares, the voting method, the voting result of each proposal and the details of each resolution passed.

Article 93 The resolutions of a shareholders’ general meeting shall specifically indicate any proposal that fails to be adopted at the meeting or any amendment to any resolution of the previous shareholders’ general meeting in the corresponding announcement.

Article 94 If a shareholders’ general meeting adopts any resolution on the appointment of Directors and Supervisors, the term of office of the newly appointed Directors and Supervisors shall commence from the date of adoption of the relevant resolution at the shareholders’ general meeting.

Article 95 Any resolution on the distribution of cash or stock dividends or capitalization of capital reserve adopted at a shareholders’ general meeting shall be implemented by the Company within two (2) months after the end of the meeting. If the specific plan cannot be implemented within two (2) months due to the requirements of the laws and regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed, the implementation date of the specific plan may be adjusted accordingly in accordance with such regulations and the actual situation.

If the specific plan cannot be implemented within 2 months due to the requirements of the laws and regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the implementation date of the specific plan may be adjusted accordingly in accordance with such regulations and the actual situation.

Article 157 Specific requirements for profit distribution by the Company

1. Principles for profit distribution: The Company shall implement a positive profit distribution policy, attach importance to the provision of reasonable returns to its shareholders, maintain the continuity and stability of the profit distribution policy and comply with the relevant provisions of laws and regulations. The profit distribution policy of the Company shall not exceed the Company's cumulative distributable profits and must not undermine the Company's ability to sustain its operations.

2. Forms for profit distribution: The Company shall prioritise cash dividends in terms of profit distribution, and may also adopt stock dividends or a combination of cash and stock dividends.

3. Conditions, ratio, frequency and arrangements for cash dividends.

Cash dividends shall only be distributed when all the following conditions are met: (1) the Company achieves positive distributable net profit (based on the lower of the profit available for distribution in the consolidated statement and the parent company's statement) in each year or half-year period, and the accumulated distributable profits of the Company are positive; (2) the cash flow is sufficient, and the cash dividends will not affect the Company's sustainable operation in the future; (3) the auditor issues a standard unqualified audit report for the financial statements of the Company for the current period; (4) the Company has no significant investment plan or significant cash expenditure or such other events.

A significant investment plan or significant cash expenditure refers to matters involving the purchase or disposal of major assets, as well as investment projects (including but not limited to equity investments, project investments, venture capital, and mergers and acquisitions) of the Company within one year, where the amount exceeds 30% of the Company's most recently audited total assets. Such matters require approval by the Board of the Company and must be submitted to the Shareholders' general meeting for review and approval.

Cash dividend ratio: In the event that the conditions for cash dividends are met, the Company shall distribute no less than 20% of its distributable profits for the year in the form of cash dividends.

Cash dividend frequency: When cash dividend conditions are satisfied, the Company shall distribute profits in cash, and, in principle, cash dividends shall be distributed on an annual basis. The Company may declare interim cash dividends based on its profitability and capital requirements. When a listed company convenes the annual general meeting to consider the annual profit distribution plan, it may consider and approve the conditions, maximum ratio, the cap amount and other matters of the interim cash dividends for the next year. The cap amount of interim dividends for the following year considered at the annual general meeting shall not exceed the net profits attributable to shareholders of the listed company during the corresponding period. The Board shall, in accordance with the resolution of the Shareholders' general meeting, formulate a specific interim dividend proposal subject to the fulfilment of the conditions of profit distribution.

The Board of the Company shall comprehensively consider the characteristics of the industry in which it operates, its stage of development, its own business model, its profitability, debt servicing capacity and whether it has major capital expenditure arrangements, and investor returns, and propose differentiated cash dividend policies in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the Articles of Association:

(1) If the Company is in a mature stage of development and has no major capital expenditure arrangements, when distributing profits, the cash dividends should account for at least 80% of the profit distribution;

(2) If the Company is in a mature stage of development and has major capital expenditure arrangements, when distributing profits, the cash dividends should account for at least 40% of the profit distribution;

(3) If the Company is in the growth stage and has major capital expenditure arrangements, the cash dividend should account for at least 20% of the profit distribution;

If the Company's development stage is difficult to distinguish but there are major capital expenditure arrangements, it can be handled in accordance with the provisions of item (3) of the preceding paragraph.

4. Conditions for stock dividend distribution: Where the Board deems the Company's share capital scale and equity structure reasonable, it may propose a stock dividend distribution plan for the approval by the Shareholders' general meeting. When distributing stock dividends, the stock dividend per 10 shares shall be no less than 1 share. In the event that stock dividends are adopted for profit distribution, real and reasonable factors such as the growth of the Company and the dilution of net assets per share should be taken into account.

5. Decision-making procedures for profit distribution

When formulating the cash distribution plan, the Board shall seriously review and discuss the matters such as the timing, conditions, minimum ratio, adjustments conditions and decision-making procedure requirements for the cash dividend of the Company.

If Independent Directors believe that a cash dividend plan may harm the interests of the Company or minority shareholders, they have the right to express an independent opinion. If the Board does not adopt or only partially adopts the opinions of Independent Directors, it shall disclose the opinion of the Independent Directors and the specific reasons for not adopting or not fully adopting the opinion in the announcement of the Board's resolution.

The Supervisory Committee supervises the implementation of cash dividend policy and shareholders' return plan by the Board, and whether to perform the corresponding decision-making procedures and information disclosure. If the Supervisory Committee finds that the Board fails to strictly implement the cash dividend policy and shareholders' return plan, fails to strictly perform the corresponding decision-making procedures or fails to truthfully, accurately and completely disclose the corresponding information, it shall issue clear opinions and urge the Board to make corrections in a timely manner.

The Company shall communicate and exchange ideas through multiple channels with shareholders (in particular minority shareholders) to obtain the opinion and requests of the shareholders and respond to shareholders' concerns in a timely manner.

6. Circumstances and procedures for adjusting profit distribution policy gearing ratio at the end of the current period exceeds 70%; (3) other circumstances occur due to the Company's production and operations, investment planning, long-term development needs, or due to significant changes in the external operating environment or its own operating conditions.

The Company shall strictly adhere to the profit distribution policy as stipulated in its Articles of Association, particularly the cash dividend policy and specific cash dividend plans approved by the Shareholders' general meeting. Should any adjustment or amendment to the profit distribution policy set forth in the Articles of Association be deemed necessary, such adjustment must first be reviewed and approved by the Board and the Supervisory Committee before being submitted to the Shareholders' general meeting for approval. Independent Directors and the Supervisory Committee of the Company must provide explicit opinions on the matter. Any resolution proposed at the Shareholders' general meeting to adjust the profit distribution policy shall be subject to approval through a special resolution at the Shareholders' general meeting.
